Dear Friend,

You may have a great product, but if you launch it wrong, you're leaving money on the table.

Everyday, product launches are happening. Some do enormously well, and some don't even make a couple dollars.

You could spend months or even years to get a product developed, but if the product launch planning is done incorrectly, you won't get the results you want.

You see....our goal here is to get you to launch a good product, so you can help people and in the end, you will make the profits you want.

Remember...Help people get what they want, and they'll help you get what you want.

Now, keep in mind that this is not a get rich quick system either, and it takes hard work to make these videos. But, just with any business, if you have the right plan to go by, then your chances of doing well is greater.

With that said, you don't have to make the same mistakes we made by watching this video series.

Introducing...

9 Part Video Course

Here's a list of this 9-part video series in more detail:

Video #1 : Introduction to Product Pre-Launching with Videos

In this video, we'll introduce you to product launches and an overview of this video series. See...understanding what you will be learning and how this system comes together will help you speed things up.

Video #2 : Planning Your Pre-Launch

This video covers a first step and an important step to product launches. Without the proper planning, your launch will fail. When I say "fail", I mean it won't reach its full potential in impact, whether that may be how many people you are able to help and at the end of the day, profits. So, in this video, you'll learn what it takes to plan a launch correctly, and the different phases of a product launch.

Video #3 : Prelaunch - What Needs To Be Done

Imagine this. You launch your product. You're all excited...and then nothing happens. This is typically what happens when the prelaunch is not done correctly or not done at all. Creating the necessary buzz around your main product launch is key.

Video #4 : The # Step Video Blueprint

You've likely seen how big product launches use certain amount of videos to pre-launch their product. There's a certain amount of elements that you need to cover in each one of these videos in order to correctly pre-launch your product. The main benefit of using these videos is that they're not just for your pre-launch, however, you can also continue to use them after your product has been launched to convert prospects into buyers.

Video #5 : Blueprint Video 1

Now is the time to learn what exactly the first and most important video will include. Believe you're not getting anywhere, because if you get this one wrong, then the rest of your videos may not be seen. So, first impressions are everything. As you can imagine, getting them extremely excited and pumped up is crucial to this video.

Video #6 : Blueprint Video 2

Once you've made some great first impressions, it's time to reel them in further and get them more excited. Without giving the blueprint away, this video will help your prospects to continue being interested in what you have to offer.

Video #7 : Blueprint Video 3

This video will review your product in such a way that it doesn't seem like you are selling. You never ever want to appear like you were selling to someone, because that will throw them off or worse, it'll get them on guard. I will show you how that looks like in this video.

Video #8 : Blueprint Video 4

Last but not the least, we have the final video and as you can imagine, the goal is to close the deal. Get people to buy is the purpose of this video.

Video #9 : Getting Your Video Created

Once you have understood what needs to be included in each and every one of these videos, we're not going to assume that you know how to create videos. In this video, you are going to learn some tips and tricks on how to get your videos created either by yourself or by a professional.

So...with that said, grab this video series now and learn how to increase your profits by launching your product right now.
